

NEXUS CORPORATION is a young, dynamic, cutting-edge development group created in the Dominican Republic. Its objective is to enhance human values which identify the principles and morals of this young group including each one of its founding members. In so doing, NEXUS CORPORATION, hopes to provide a community that is opened to the rest of the world with whom it shares dreams, tenacity, pride and hospitality.

As President of NEXUS CORPORATION I assume all the responsibility of motivating the young and dynamic group of professionals which surrounds me. I will install in them a code of conduct based on ethics and morals which will motivate them on a daily basis in the noble task of fulfilling the activities of the company. In addition to enjoying ownership of our exclusive properties, buyers will benefit from important capital gains. We strongly believe in the conjunction of human effort with the intellectual realisation of the individual, our constructive proposals hold a ANGSANA SAMANA BAY is the first luxury real estate development undertaken by our Nexus RD subsidiary in the Dominican Republic. Situated in the beautiful Samaná bay in the midst of a natural oasis, this project has been designed with the aim of always increasing the potential of the surrounding ecological environment and the exquisite natural surroundings this location has to offer. It is these such principles which will drive future developments in the Caribbean, undertaken by NEXUS CORPORATION in partnership with some of the most experienced professionals in the tourist industry which will develop every project with our philosophy of creating business opportunities which will provide peace and wellbeing whilst always respecting the natural environment.

Carefully,

D. Felipe Ferrer – Presidente
